TERMS OF SALE

This is a public and mail bid auction sale. Lots will be sold on the dates indicated. Bidders unknown to us must supply acceptable credit references or a 25% deposit to assure entry of their bids.

A ten percent buyers' premium will be added to the cost of all lots.

All floor sales are final. No lots may be returned for any reason by floor buyers. Any claims for adjustment by mail bidders must be made within three days after receipt of books. No lots may be returned without our written permission.

Terms of this sale are strictly cash in United States funds only. Payments from foreign accounts must be made in U.S. Dollars by International Check to the account of George Frederick Kolbe through any New York Correspondent bank. Bids from minors cannot be accepted without written and signed parental permission.

Unless exempt by law, the buyer will be required to pay, on the total purchase price, the combined New York State and local sales tax or any applicable compensating use tax of any other state.

All books are as described. We acknowledge the possibility of errors or typographical mistakes, and any errors on our part will be cheerfully corrected. We cannot be responsible for your errors; please check your bid sheet carefully.

Title remains with the owner until lots are paid for in full. We reserve the discretionary right to withhold delivery of lots until full payment has been received.

The prices indicated after each lot are estimates of value only and are intended solely as a guide. The prices realized may be higher or lower than these valuations.

By submitting your bids you agree to the Terms of Sale herewith set forth. Payment in full must be made immediately upon notification or upon receipt of books.

Lots to be mailed to addresses not in the United States or its Territories will be sent only at the risk of the purchaser. When possible, insurance will be obtained. It must be noted, however, that adequate insurance is often not available via surface mail.

All lots will be sold to the highest bidder. Mail bids will be treated as limits and lots will be purchased below the maximums where competition permits. There is no charge or commission for executing bids, however, a premium of 10% of the successful bid price is payable by the buyer as part of the total purchase price. All postage, insurance and shipping charges will be added to invoices. There will be a $2.00 charge per lot for packing and processing.

Clain-Stefanelli 350. Grieron page 16. Sigler 74. Many of America's greatest contributions to numismatic scholarship first appeared in the pages of this most important publication. Crosby's classic works on large cents, parts of his Early Coins of America, Frey's Dictionary of Numismatic Names, Edgar Adams' extensive work on California pioneer gold coins and, later on, the scholarly, still indispensable studies on ancient Greek coins by Newell, Baldwin Brett and others are but a small sampling. For American researchers, however, the Journal is probably most interesting for the reminiscences and other fascinating tidbits of information to be found in the earlier volumes, much of which is virtually unknown today except among the select few fortunate enough to possess a set of this very scarce storehouse of knowledge. The history of the Journal which appears in volume 41 states it well: "The history of the Journal, if it could be given in detail, would be a history of American numismatics."

An unparalleled exhibition of rare American coins from the finest contemporary collections. The illustrations are keyed to the various owners (Würtzbach, Hillyer Ryder, Granberg, Woodin, Ellsworth, French, etc.) which makes this work invaluable for tracing pedigrees.

- 86 CHAPMAN, S. Hudson. The United States Cents of the Year 1794. Philadelphia, 1923. First Edition. 28, (2) pages, 4 fine plates. 4to. Original blue cloth, gilt. Very fine. (150.00)
Copy No. 41, with a presentation inscription signed by Chapman and dated 30th August 1923. In his article on large cent literature, John Adams states: "More than 50 copies were printed, but all were recalled to correct numerous mistakes, many of which were repeated in the 1926 edition." Chapman's efforts to cover his embarrassment were apparently quite successful since this work is now considered to be the rarest work on United States large cents, with perhaps five or fewer copies still extant. The copy offered here is in superb condition and may well be the finest copy known.

Subsequently the two pattern coins passed into the hands of John Work Garrett and were sold individually at the 1979 Bowers & Ruddy sale, both now residing in the collection of one of this country's foremost numismatists.

W.W.C. Wilson's Plated Jenks

218 [JENKS, John Story]. Catalogue of the John Story Jenks Collection of Coins. Ancient Greek, Roman and the Entire World. Early American Colonial and State Issues and United States Patterns and the Regular Issues. Philadelphia, Henry Chapman, December 7-17, 1921. xii, 653, (1), (24) pages, 42 superb photographic plates of coins and medals, prices realized list. 4to, 305 x 252 mm. Original white cloth, gilt, binding just a trifle worn and slightly soiled. Very fine. (1500.00)

Clain-Stefanelli 7997*. Grierson page 276. Sigler 1393. The most famous of the Chapman sales and perhaps the most famous American coin auction ever held. For years it served as the best American single reference guide to the entire range of numismatics. Of great importance for the fine array of ancient Greek and Roman coins alone, also featured was an incredible selection of medieval and modern European rarities and an especially important and extensive series of British coins. The American coins, from colonials to pioneer gold, were also of prime importance. Given its wide use as a reference, the virgin white cloth, and its weight (nearly seven pounds in a fragile binding), fine copies, even without plates, are difficult to locate. Only sixty Jenks sales were issued with plates and the copy offered here certainly ranks among the best preserved copies. From the library of the famous Canadian numismatist W.W.C. Wilson whose remarkable collection of Canadian and American coins and medals was sold at a memorable auction in 1925. In 1910 Wilson purchased The Numismatist from Farran Zerbe and in 1911 he donated it to the American Numismatic Association, a fact little known today.

219 [JENKS, William J.J. Catalogue of the Collection of Ancient and Foreign Coins, Formerly the Property of Mr. Wm. J. Jenks. Also, of a collection of American and Foreign Coins and Medals, together with a large variety of Coin Sale Catalogues, Fractional Currency, Minor Gems, Etc. New York, W. Elliot Woodward, 34th Sale, January 10-13, 1881. 111, (3) pages, 2500 lots, 2 fine heliotype plates of ancients and English coins, priced in ink with a number of buyers' names and a few interesting annotations. Old cloth-backed boards, original printed paper covers bound in, internally fine. (200.00) Thick Paper Copy. An important collection, particularly so for ancient coins and rare English coins. Woodward's lengthy description in the catalogue of an aureus of Pescennius Niger (in this copy correctly identified in manuscript as a Becker counterfeit) precipitated his longstanding feud with Ed. Frossard.

220 JONES, George F. The Coin Collector's Manual, containing a description of the Gold, Silver, Copper and other Coins, of the United States, together with an Account of Actual Sales in Philadelphia and New York, designed as a Guide Book for Coin Collectors. Philadelphia, for sale by Edward Cogan, (1860). 41 pages, tables, 4to. Original dark blue sheep and brown pebbled cloth, lettered on the front cover in gilt, binding worn but sound, contents a trifle foxed. (250.00)

A most significant work, it being the first guide book of values for American coins, which were derived from early auction and private sale records. Also featured is perhaps the earliest reference to the problems inherent in grading coins: "In the sales of the foregoing pieces, there are, of course, some apparent discrepancies, as, for instance, where the condition of the coin sold, is represented as the same, the prices are widely different. This can be accounted for, generally, in no other way, than that one coin collector or dealer may call a coin fine or very fine, when another would describe one exactly like it, only as good or fine." Very rare.

266 (MARIS, Edward). (Forty-Eight Varieties of Connecticut, Vermont and New Jersey Coins). (Philadelphia, 1876). Fine Woodburytype Process plate of coins. 266 x 205 mm. As issued, mounted on a sheet of thick paper. Very fine. (150.00) This handsome plate was first offered in an April 1876 editorial announcement appearing in the American Journal of Numismatics: "Subscribers to the Early Coins of America, can obtain a plate of forty-eight varieties of Connecticut, Vermont and New Jersey coins, which are described but not illustrated in that book. The size of the plates is uniform with those in Mr. Crosby's work." Depicting coins from Maris's notable collection, the plate is useful for establishing pedigrees as well as being an important adjunct to the classic 1875 work on American colonial coins. Probably 100 or less plates were originally prepared and today it is rarely encountered, either loose or bound in copies of Crosby.

Volumes IV-V bound in one volume, black half morocco, gilt, spine defective, internally fine. (750.00)

Rarely offered. Mason's Magazine, along with Frossard's Numisma, provides a rare glimpse of coin collecting in 19th century America. While not always 100% accurate, the information given is usually uninhibited and entertaining, often it can be found nowhere else, and, sometimes it is of great importance. The famous photograph entitled Mason's Photographic Gallery of the Coin Collectors of the United States No. 1 which appeared in volume III is, while once folded as usual, a particularly clear and well-exposed example.

280 [MICKLEY, Joseph J.]. Catalogue of the Numismatic Collection formed by Joseph J. Mickley; now the property of W. Elliot Woodward. New York, Wm. H. Strobridge, October 28-November 2, 1867. 196 pages, 3349 lots, priced in pencil. Modern light green cloth, gilt. (200.00)

A landmark sale. Born in 1799, Mickley's search for a cent of that year led him into the formation of the finest collection of his time. The circumstances surrounding its sale are tragic. Earlier in the year his house was broken into and, although only foreign coins were taken, the experience so unnerved Mickley that, fearing another burglary, he promptly sold the remaining portion of the collection to Woodward. He lived, and travelled widely, for a number of years thereafter and, though he continued to collect coins from the places his journeys took him, he never regained the enthusiasm of the earlier years.

281 [MIDDLETON, Commodore Edward]. Catalogue of a Private Collection of Ancient Coins, and at the close a few modern coins, with an addenda. New York, Wm. H. Old cloth-backed boards, original printed front paper cover bound in. (300.00) Attinelli page 70: "This cabinet of ancient coins, the property of Commodore Middleton, was without a rival in the United States, in the beauty and number of its gems. In either branch, Imperial, Family, or Colonial, it stood pre-eminent and well worthy the efforts of Mr. W.H. Strobridge, who catalogued the collection, who found himself at home in this his favorite branch of numismatology." Attinelli goes on to relate, in polite terms, that the collection was slaughtered. Very rare with the two handsome photographic plates.
